

President Kalenin of the Russian Soviet Republic spends much time visiting the farmers of his country. Photo shows him (on the right) discussing market conditions with a peasant in his field. International.

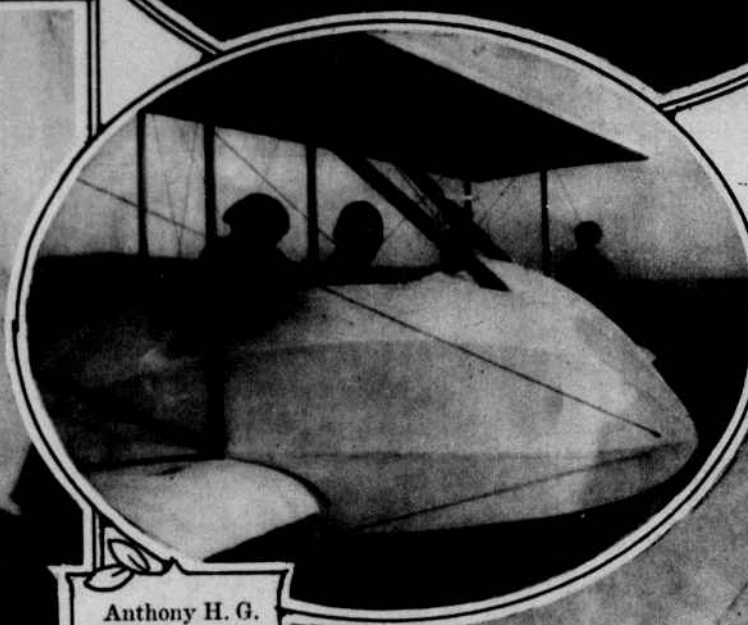

A recent photo of United States Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey and Mrs. Frelinghuysen, with their daughters, Victoria and Emily, and son, Joseph, Jr., at their home in Somerville. Underwood & Underwood.

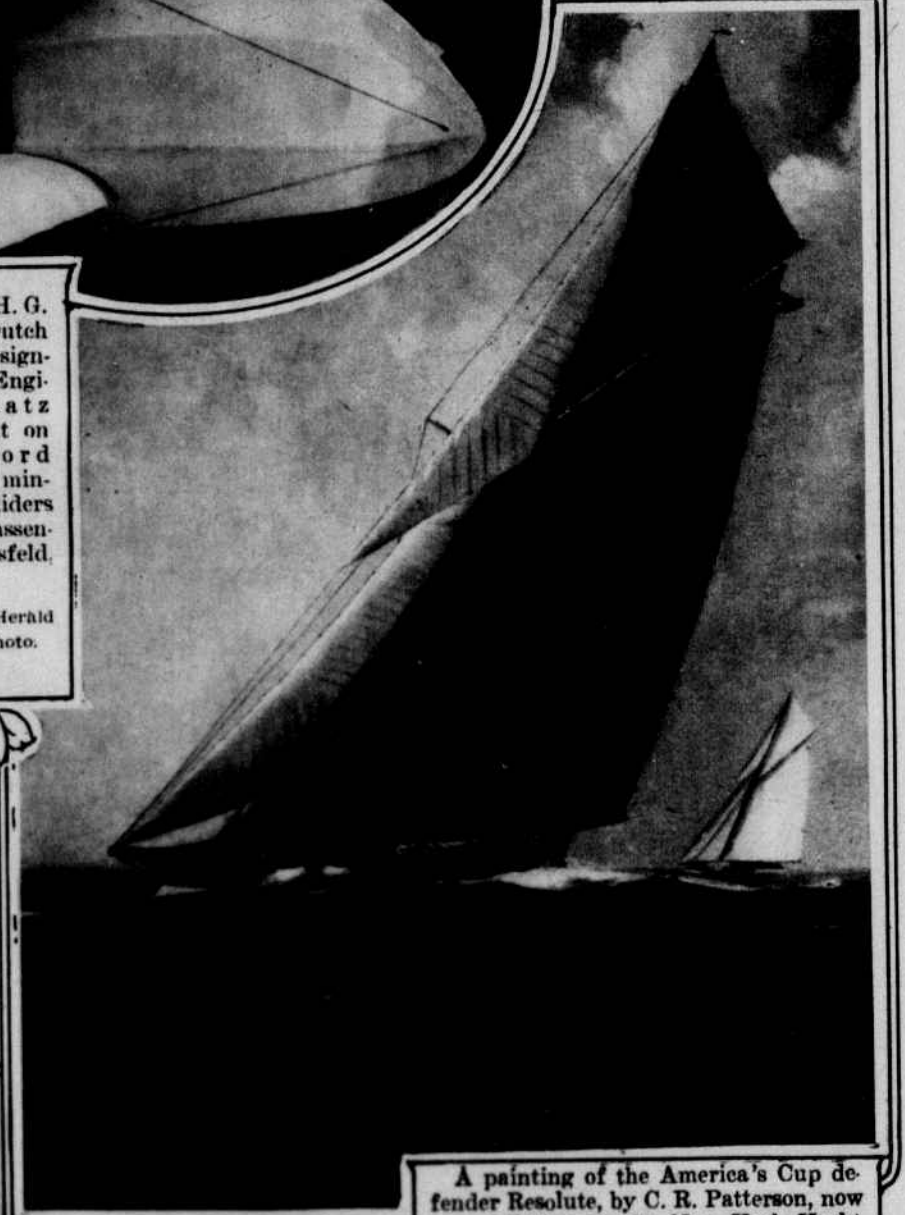

A group of prominent Americans and some friends at a house party given by Mrs. Charles Munn at Dunkeld House, Scotland. Front row, left to right—Ector Munn, William Slater and Mrs. Gurnee Munn. Back row—Countess de Heeren, Countess Zoppola, Mrs. Gifford Cochran and Mrs. Dewese Dilworth. Wide World.

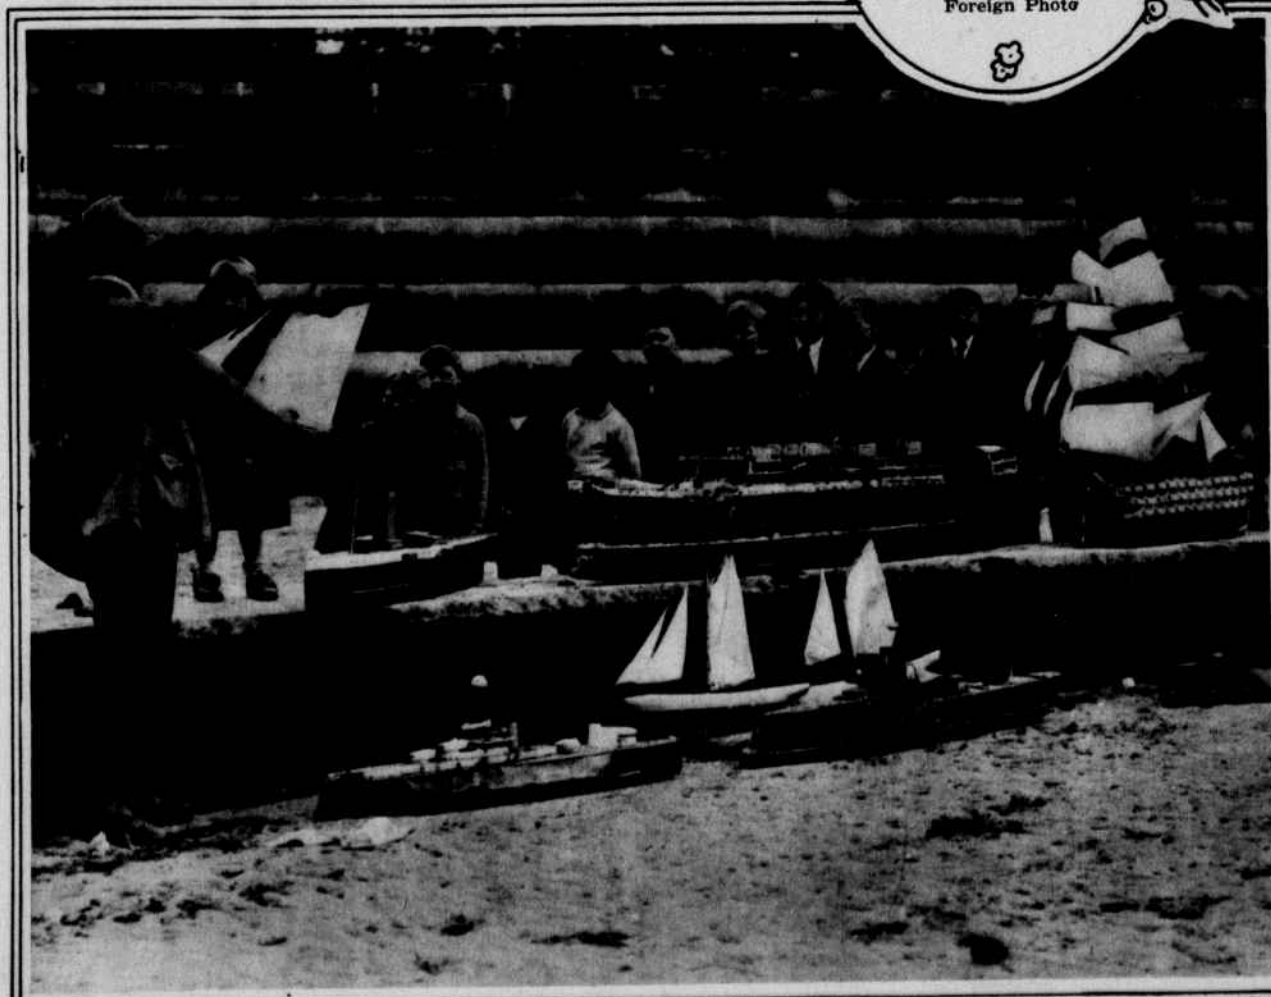

Lord Victor Paget playing in the American tennis tournament at Frinton, England. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

Anthony H. G. Fokker, Dutch airplane designer, and Engineer Seekatz starting out on their record flight of 13 minutes for gliders with a passenger at Gersfeld, Germany. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

A painting of the America's Cup defender Resolute, by C. R. Patterson, now on exhibition at the New York Yacht Club. It will be placed later on the steamship Resolute of the United American Lines, which was named after the yacht. Wide World.

William Lambert, English ex-service man, and his models of ships which he rents out to children at the seashore. Photo shows a long line of prospective admirals waiting to choose their flagships from among the fleet. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

Girl raiders, of Republican sympathies, holding up a Government mail car to search for dispatches in western Ireland. Wide World.